

This guide for livestock producers and owners provides an overview of the proposed federal livestock identification and traceability requirements. It is to help regulated parties understand the proposed amendments to the Part XV Health of Animals Regulations (Identification and Traceability). It is not a substitute for the law. Provincial and territorial requirements may also apply.

This guide supports the objective of the national Livestock Identification and Traceability Program, which is to provide accurate and up-to-date livestock identity, movement and location information in order to mitigate the impact of disease outbreaks, food safety issues and natural disasters.

PREMISES IDENTIFICATION

DISPOSAL OF GOAT CARCASSES

WHAT TO DO?		TIME LIMIT
Identify the goat carcasses.	Goat carcasses must be identified with an approved indicator if you move them off site for disposal.	Before the carcass leaves the site.

Report the on site disposal of the carcasses.

When disposing of goat carcasses on site, you must report the following information to the responsible administrator:

- The premises identification number of the site where the carcass was disposed of
- The date on which the carcass was disposed of
- The identification number on the approved indicators<sup>1</sup>

Within 7 days of disposing of the carcass.

If you dispose of a goat carcass on its farm of origin that has not had an approved indicator applied to it, you are not required to apply an approved indicator to it or report its disposal.

PROHIBITIONS

IT IS PROHIBITED TO

- Remove or cause the removal of goats or goat carcasses from a site unless they bear an approved indicator, with the exceptions listed in the “Animal identification” section above.
- Apply an approved indicator to goats or goat carcasses that are not at the site for which the indicator was assigned.
- Apply an approved indicator for goats to animals that are not goats or to carcasses that are not goat carcasses.
- Transfer an approved indicator from a goat or its carcass to another animal or carcass, or reuse an approved indicator.
- Apply, make, sell, or provide a means of identifying goats or carcasses that is likely to be mistaken for an approved indicator.
- Remove an approved or revoked indicator from a goat or its carcass, except at the time and place of disposal of the carcass.
- Alter an approved indicator in any manner.
- Give, sell or distribute approved indicators assigned for your site.

DEFINITIONS

Approved indicator: refers to indicators approved under the Livestock Identification and Traceability Program. In most cases approved indicators are approved ear tags.

Revoked indicator: refers to indicators that are no longer approved under the Livestock Identification and Traceability Program.

Carcass: refers to any part of the carcass of a ruminant or pig that exceeds 50% of its weight and, as a general rule, it refers to dead stock.

Farm: refers to land, and all building and other structures on that land, that is used under one management for breeding or raising animals, but does not include an artificial insemination unit.

Farm of origin: refers to the farm on which an animal is born, or if an animal is not born on a farm, the first farm to which it is moved after its birth.

Site: refers to premises where ruminants or pigs or the carcasses of ruminants or pigs are kept or collected, but does not include a conveyance.

<sup>1</sup> When you are required to report to the responsible administrator an identification number on an approved indicator of a goat or goat carcass that bears a revoked indicator instead, you must report the identification number on the revoked indicator.

<sup>2</sup> The removal of an animal's approved or revoked indicator could be authorized if an inspector determines, based on information provided (whether before, at the time of or within 7 days of the removal of the indicator), that the indicator is causing the animal to suffer.
